It is hereby declared that by signing hereunder as "owner" I am the legal registered owner of the above described vehicle (or have been authorized by the legal owner as the vehicle's principle driver, responsible for the cost and procurement of repairs and maintenance) and in such capacity, I agree that:

1. Really Living Seventh-day Adventist Church volunteers are authorized to change the oil in this vehicle as well as wash and detail (vacuum/wipe interior surfaces) in connection with this community event.

2. My vehicle may be operated by any volunteer who is a duly licensed driver, and is authorized to do so by the event coordinator, in order to drive my vehicle on and off oil-change ramps and between oil change and washing/detailing stations.

3. Inasmuch as Really Living Seventh-day Adventist Church is not engaged in the business of operating a garage or service station and any servicing and/or repair of the above described property will be carried out by volunteers at no charge to the owner, the owner hereby releases Really Living Seventh-day Adventist Church and the Ontario Conference of Seventh-day Adventists and all sponsors from any and all responsibility for improper or faulty servicing and/or repair and/or cleaning of the equipment and from any responsibility for damage to it while in the care, custody or control of the church, its employees, or volunteers.
